

Theological Seminary*

Azusa Theological Seminary officially announces the opening of its full-time program in English for the fall of 2006. We will begin by offering the first year program this year. Then, in each succeeding year, the next year of the full-time program will be added until there are four years.

Azusa serves as the official ministerial training school for the Verenigde Pinkster- en Evangeliegemeente (VPE), The Assemblies of God in The Netherlands. A four year Bachelor of Theology program is offered to students wishing to enter full or part-time ministry or to enhance their present ministerial skills. Graduates of the Seminary with a four year Bachelor of Theology may continue their studies with the Vrije Universiteit, Amsterdam (VU) at the Masters level and then the Doctoral level. Azusa shares the facilities of the Theological Faculty of the VU and has made agreements whereby Azusa graduates may pursue further VU degrees. The establishment of a Professorial Chair for Pentecostal Studies and of The Hollenweger Center for the Interdisciplinary Study of Pentecostal and Charismatic Movements form an integral part of these agreements.

Azusa is officially recognized by the Dutch government. No direct government subsidy is received by Azusa; however, full-time students are eligible for student grants under accepted Dutch regulations.

The approximate cost for one year of full-time study for an EU student is about €2600, which includes books (the price can vary on this), tuition and fees. Housing costs are not included in this price. Azusa does not have housing available. However, you may find housing information on our website.

The study load for a full-time student is normally about 16 hours per week of class time and about 24 hours per week of study time, which is about 40 hours per week.

We would appreciate your passing this information onto anyone in your church who may be looking for training for pastoral ministry or missionary or church work. We encourage you to visit our website (www.azusa.nl) or call us for more information.

Thank you very much for your help!

Blessings!

Jim Rossi
English Program Coordinator
